PTA News

PHILLIP MAGRUDER ELEMENTARY SCHOOL PTA held its regular 7:30 meeting in the school cafeteria. Meeting was called to order by Mrs. Elroy Wittrock, president. Pledge of allegiance was given by Cub Scout Pack 385-C.

An inspirational, highlighting the life of Abraham Lincoln, was read by Mrs. Wayne Maxwell. Mrs. Albert Martin, recording secretary, made the announcement that the Magruder PTA Spaghetti Dinner and Carnival was a great success. Mrs. C. L. Adkins, corresponding secretary, read an invitation from the Torrance Library inviting all those interested to attend their "Children's Hour" program. The report of the nominating committee was given by Ira Hon.

Edwin Brown, school principal and parent education chairman, was happy to introduce a new member of the Magruder teaching staff, Mrs. Nelson J. Rowen. She will teach a fourth, fifth and sixth combination class in room 10. Edwin Brown also announced that Phillip Magruder Elementary School now has three new associate teachers: Mrs. Margaret Bullock, Mrs. Barbara Allen, and Mrs. Maybelle Landry. Mrs. Bullock of room 5 has Marilyn La Husen as associate teacher. Mrs. Allen of room 1 has Mrs. Ethel Huntzicker for associate teacher. Mrs. Landry of room 7 has Howard Weithorn for associate teacher.

Mrs. Elmer Ecker of the Torrance Council was the featured chairman of the evening. The theme was "Frontiers; Past, Present and Future." Symbols of bright color ribbons and gifts the PTA way was part of the Founder's Day birthday celebration.

A skit was given by the following PTA members: Mmes. Walter Farley, Clifford Murrow, Albert Martin, Wayne Maxwell and Jack Kelly as a highlight of the meeting.

Honorary life membership card and pin was presented to Patrick McManus by David Smith, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Smith. David Smith read a poem entitled "If" which was based on a poem by Rudyard Kipling. Patrick McManus has taught school in the Torrance area since 1954. He is a native of Pennsylvania. More than 50 former eighth grade students who had attended McManus' eighth grade class in the past surprised him by coming to the meeting and presenting him with an autographed book with all their signatures.

Refreshments were served after the business meeting and guests were invited to enjoy a beautiful birthday cake that had been presented by Mrs. Edwin Brown, wife of the Phillip Magruder School principal. Coffee was served by Mr. and Mrs. William Freed.

Pictures of the highlights of the evening were taken by Michael Berdine of Torrance.

Floral Displays From Torrance In Fower Show

Floral arrangements by Ailyn Miller, flower arrangements instructor for the Torrance Recreation Department, will be featured in the forthcoming World Flower and Garden Show.

Miller will design eight displays for the show. One of the displays will show arrangements by students of Torrance Recreation Department, one of the few in the State to offer instruction in flower arranging. Miller will represent the United States in competition.

The show, which has flowers in the home as its theme, will be at the Pan Pacific Auditorium in Los Angeles through March 5.

REVEALING PORTRAIT—Left to right, Richard Brown, principal of Yukon Elementary School, and Mrs. Wendall Towell were presented honorary life memberships by Melvin Schultz at the Founders Day meeting. Mrs. Raymond Staley gave the presentations and the portraits were sketched by Mrs. Otis Hatfield.

Women's Council Tells of Ham Dinner Success

On behalf of the members of Southwest Park Area of St. James Womens Council of Catholic Women, Mrs. Ronald Gateley, area director, wishes to express their thanks to everyone who helped make their recent sponsored Parish "Ham Dinner" a huge success.

A net profit from the drawing on the chest of linens, the stainless steel tableware for 12 and the dinner itself was over $1,700. This is a sign of a lot of work and cooperation from the entire community.

The proud winner of the chest of linens, that had a cash value of over $350, was Mrs. Joseph Langhorst, 22025 Grant Ave., Torrance. Mrs. Linda Dodd, 424 N. Francisca, Redondo Beach, was the lucky winner of the chest of service for 12 stainless steel tableware. This lucky ticket was purchased by Mrs. Dodd's teen-age son, who wrote in his mother's name.

In addition to these prizes, Mrs. Charles Ehrsam, 4572 Cadison, Torrance, was awarded a $20 check for selling the most books of tickets, 108. A gift was also awarded to Mrs. Albert Kovach, 21730 Barbara, who sold 70 books.

The next project coming up is the parish "Card Party" to be held St. Patrick's Day, Friday, March 17, at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall, corner of Vincent and Broadway Steets, Redondo Beach. This project is under the sponsorship of the South Redondo Area.

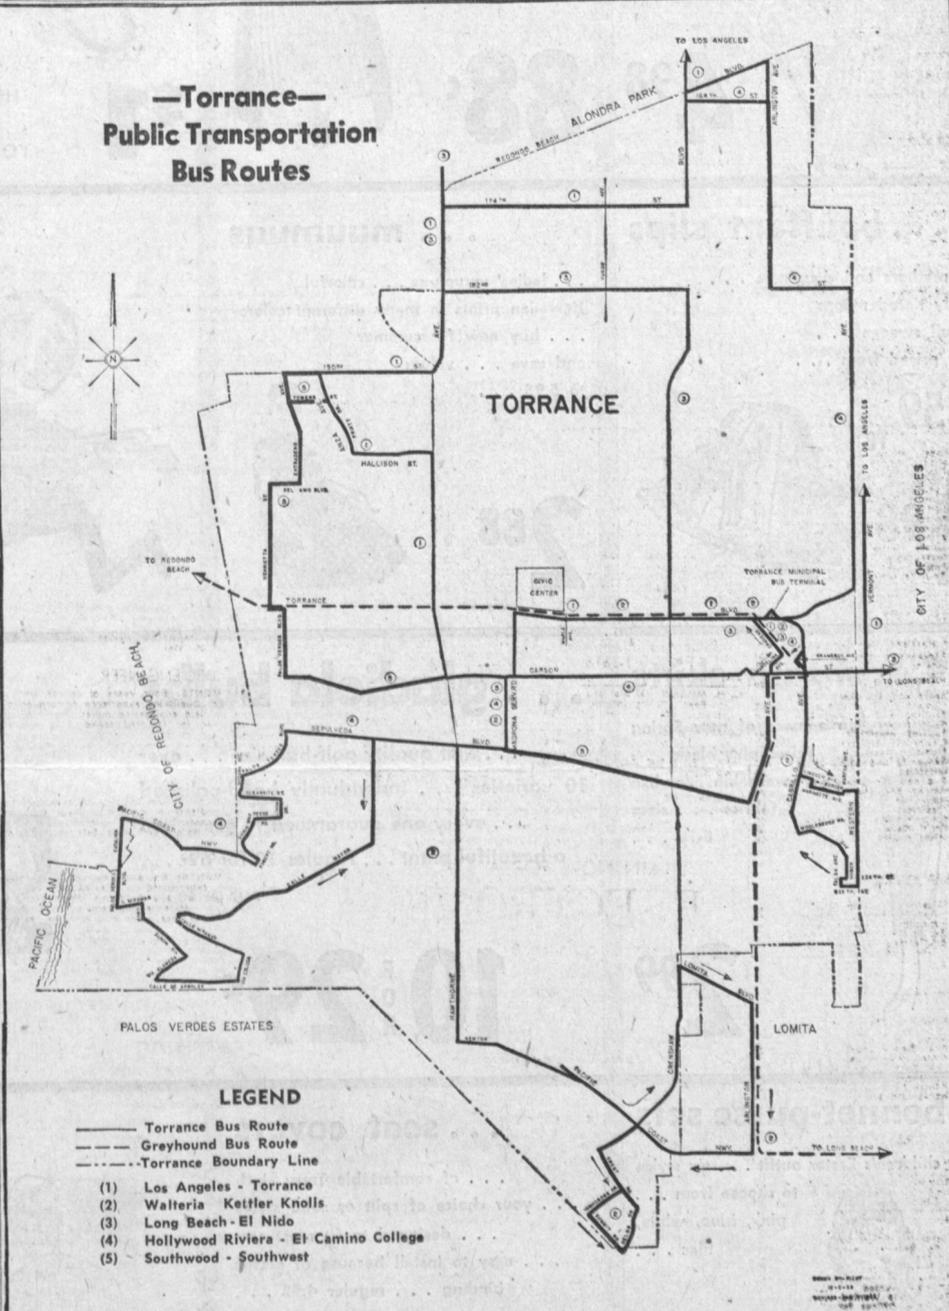

On Saturday, April 29, all five areas of St. James Parish Council of Catholic Women will join together and sponsor a One Day School Carnival to be held on the parish parking lot, corner of Pacific Coast Highway and Vincent Streets, between the hours of 10 a.m. to 10 p.m.

BAD TO WORSE
Men change their rulers willingly, hoping to better themselves... they afterwards find by experience they have gone from bad to worse. A new prince burdens those who have submitted to him with his soldiery with infinite other hardships which he must put upon his new acquisition.

—Nicolo Machiavelli (1469-1527)
Italian statesman

ANOTHER OPPRESSOR
A free nation may have a deliverer: a nation enslaved can have only another oppressor. For whoever is able to dethrone an absolute prince has a power sufficient to become absolute himself.

—Charles de Montesquieu (1689-1755)
French philosopher
